

Garage Door Installer Helper / Apprentice

Kreofsky Overhead Doors – Plainview, MN

A Division of KBS Companies

$18–$24/hour (based on experience)

Looking to get into the trades but don't have experience? Start here—we'll train you.

KBS Companies is hiring a Garage Door Installer Helper / Apprentice to join our Overhead Doors team. This is a hands-on role where you'll work alongside experienced installers, learn a skilled trade, and build a long-term career.

No garage door experience? That's okay. If you're reliable, willing to learn, and have some mechanical or construction background, we'll teach you the rest.

Great fit for candidates from construction, farming, automotive, landscaping, or general labor backgrounds.

What You Can Expect at KBS

- Steady, year-round work
- A mix of residential and commercial jobs
- On-the-job training with experienced installers
- A team that works well together and helps each other out
- Opportunity to grow into a technician or lead role over time
- Established, family-owned company with long-term stability

What You'll Be Doing

- Assist with installing residential and commercial garage doors and openers
- Help with service calls and basic repairs
- Load, unload, and organize materials and equipment
- Keep jobsites clean and safe
- Support the lead installer and crew throughout the day

- Learn tools, parts, and installation processes

What We're Looking For

- Willingness to learn and work hard
- Mechanical or construction experience is helpful, but not required
- Reliable and shows up on time
- Able to work with a team and take direction
- Valid driver's license

This is a great opportunity for someone looking to get into the trades and build a long-term career.
